

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION, PUBLIC POLICY & GOVERNANCE

Programme

IGU Commission on Geography and Public Policy

CONFERENCE

Lisbon, 10 - 11 April 2003

International Geographical Union / Union Géographique Internationale
Commission on Geography and Public Policy

CONFERENCE

"PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION, PUBLIC POLICY AND GOVERNANCE: CHALLENGES & INNOVATIONS"

Lisbon – Portugal 10–11 April 2003
Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian – Conference room nº 2

PROGRAMME

9 April

15.00-19.00 - "Urban development and public policy in Lisbon" (walking tour in the historic center)

10 April

9.00 – Reception and Registration

9.30 – Opening Session

Carlos Nunes Silva and Doris Wastl-Walter

9.50 – 12.30 Panel 1 - Institutional innovation and new forms of governance

Chair: Doris Wastl-Walter

Maria Asensio Menchero (Instituto Nacional de Administração, Oeiras, Portugal) – Policy change and institutional reform in the public sector. Causes and consequences of changes in the mode of governance.

Sarah Ayres & Graham Pearce (Aston Business School, Aston University, UK) – Constitutional change and governance in the English regions.

Paul Carmichael (University of Ulster, School of Policy Sciences, UK) – Decentralising the 'unified' British Civil Service: lessons from Northern Ireland.

Charalampos Koutalakis (Humboldt University, Institute of Social Sciences, Berlin, Germany) – European urban policies and domestic responses towards a model for evaluating implementation performance in different urban areas.

14.00-16.30 Panel 2 – Institutional innovation and new forms of governance - II

Chair: Piet Saey

Doris Wastl-Walter (University of Bern, Department of Geography, Switzerland) - Developing options for decentralisation and local government in Kosovo.

Brij Maharaj (University of Natal, Pietermaritzburg, South Africa) - Changing approaches to urban governance in post-apartheid South Africa: a critical appraisal.

Markku Kiviniemi; Ella Mustakangas; Hilikka Vihinen (University of Helsinki, Department of Political Science & MTT Economic Research, Finland) – New local partnerships in the context of prevailing structures.

16.30-17.30 – IGU Commission Meeting

11 April

9.00 – 12.30 Panel 3 – Governing Cities and Regions

Chair: Hans Thor Andersen

William Salet (University of Amsterdam, AME, Faculty of Social and Behavioural Sciences, Netherlands) – Organising connectivity as the key to multi-level governance. The case of metropolitan planning.

Piet Saey (University of Ghent, Department of Geography, Ghent, Belgium) – Brussels: the contradictory results of multiple governmental re-scaling.

Carlos Nunes Silva & Stephen Syrett (University of Lisbon, Portugal / Middlesex University, London, UK) – Governing Metropolitan Lisbon.

14.00-17.30 Panel 4 – Governing Cities and Regions - II

Chair: William Salet

Anders Lund Hansen & Eric Clark (Lund University, Department of Social and Economic Geography, Sweden) – Globalization of the commercial property market and changing urban governance in Lisbon.

Gregg Ryzin (City University of New York, School of Public Affairs, New York, USA) – Understanding the causes of citizen satisfaction with the municipal services: the expectancy-disconfirmation model.

Hans Thor Andersen & John Jorgensen (University of Copenhagen, Department of Geography, Denmark) – Enterpreneurial welfarism.

Peter Abbas & Frank Hansen (University of Copenhagen, Department of Geography, Denmark) - Regulation of regional employment in Denmark, since the mid 80ties. A case of fragmented, decentralised multi-layered governance.

17.30 – Closing session

Carlos Nunes Silva and Doris Wastl-Walter